ACT NO. 29 OF 2012

I assent,

CARLYLE ARNOLD GLEAN

Governor-General.

30th August, 2012.

AN ACT to amend the Criminal Code Cap. 72A of the 2010 Continuous Revised Edition of the Laws of Grenada.

[14th September, 2012].

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives and by the authority of the same as follows—

1. This Act may be cited as the Short title.

CRIMINAL CODE (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2012

and shall be read as one with the Criminal Code CAP. 72A of the 2010 Continuous Revised Edition of the Laws of Grenada, hereinafter referred to as the “principal Code.”

Amendment of section 20 of
principal code.

2. Section 20 of the principal Code is amended by inserting after sub-section (1) the following new subsection;

“(1a) For the purposes of this Code “indecent assault” means an assault committed in circumstances of indecency.”

Amendment of section 50 of
principal Code.

3. Section 50 of the principal Code is repealed and the following section is substituted—

“Criminal Responsibility

50. It shall be presumed that a child under the age of twelve years is not capable of or criminally responsible for an act or omission, unless it is proved that at the time of doing the act or making the omission the person had attained sufficient maturity of understanding to judge the nature and consequences of his conduct in the matter in respect of which he or she is accused.”

Amendment of section 70 of
principal Code.

4. Section 70 of the principal Code is repealed and the following section is substituted—

“Different kinds of punishment

70. The following punishments may be inflicted under this Code:—

- (a) death;
- (b) imprisonment, including detention in an Industrial School as defined in section 3 of this Code;

- (c) flogging;
 - (d) whipping;
 - (e) fine;
 - (f) payment of compensation;
 - (g) community services order; and
 - (h) suspended sentence.”

5. The principal Code is amended by inserting immediately after section 78B, the following new sections—

Insertion of new section in principal
Code.

“Power to make Community Services Order

78BA.(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment the Court by or before which he is convicted may, in addition to or instead of dealing with him in any other way make an order requiring him to perform community services.

(2) The Minister may subject to negative resolution make rules governing community services orders.

(3) For the purposes of this Code “community service” means work for a community organization or other work of value to the community performed by a person without payment.

Suspended sentences

78BB. Where a court passes on any person a sentence of imprisonment for a term of not more than three years for an offence, it may order that the sentence shall not take effect unless, during a period specified in the order, being not less than one year or more than three years from the date of the order, such person commits in Grenada another offence punishable with imprisonment and thereafter a court having power to do so orders that the original sentence shall take effect with or without variations of its terms.

(2) The Minister may subject to negative resolution make rules governing suspended sentences.

(3) For the purpose of this Code “suspended sentence” as respects any offender means a sentence which is ordered pursuant to this section not to take effect unless the offender commits another offence.”

39. Section 230 of the principal Code is repealed and the following sections are substituted—

Amendment of section 230 of the principal Code.

“Murder

230. A person commits murder if he causes the death of another person—

- (a) intending to cause death; or
- (b) intending to cause grievous bodily injury.

Capital murder

230A. (1) Subject to sub-section (2), murder committed in any of the following circumstances or any other circumstances which the Court may determine, is capital murder—

- (a) the murder of—
 - (i) a member of the Police Force acting in the execution of his duties or a person assisting a member so acting;
 - (ii) a correctional officer acting in the execution of his duties;
 - (iii) a judicial officer acting in the execution of his duties or a former judicial officer in retaliation of his or her duties;
 - (iv) any member of the Police Force, correctional officer or judicial officer for any reason directly attributable to the nature of his occupation;

- (b) any person for any reason directly attributable to—
 - (i) the status of that person as a witness or party in a pending or concluded civil cause or matter or in any criminal proceedings; or
 - (ii) the service or past service of that person as a juror in any criminal trial;
- (c) the murder of a justice of the peace acting in execution of his judicial functions;
- (d) any murder committed by a person in the course or furtherance of—
 - (i) robbery;
 - (ii) burglary or housebreaking;
 - (iii) arson;
 - (iv) any sexual offence;
 - (v) any drug trafficking offence or other drug related offence;
- (e) any murder committed pursuant to an arrangement whereby money or anything of value—
 - (i) passes or is intended to pass from one person to another or to a third party at the request or direction of that other person; or

- (ii) is promised by one person to another or to a third person at the request or direction of that other person;

as consideration for that other person causing or assisting in causing the death of any person or counseling or procuring any person to do any act causing or assisting in causing death of another person;

- (f) any murder committed by a person in the course or furtherance of an act of terrorism, that is to say an act involving the use of violence by that person which, by reason of its nature and extent, is calculated to create a state of fear in the public or any sector of the public.

(2) Where in the case of any murder referred to in sub-section (1), (other than a murder referred to in paragraph (e)), two or more persons are guilty of that murder, it shall be capital murder in the case of any of them who by his own act caused the death of, or inflicted or attempted to inflict grievous bodily harm on, the person murdered, or who himself or herself used violence on that person in the course of furtherance of an attack on that person; but the murder shall not be capital murder in the case of any other of the persons committing it.

(3) Where it is alleged that a person accused of murder is guilty of capital murder, the offence shall be charged as capital murder in the indictment.

(4) A person convicted of capital murder under sub-section (1), may on conviction on indictment, be sentenced to death.

(5) Notwithstanding sub-section (4) and subject to sub-section (7), a person convicted of capital murder shall be given an opportunity by the Court, to plead in mitigation of sentence and the Court shall in such case take into account the following factors—

- (a) the gravity and nature of the offence;
- (b) the character and record of the offender;
- (c) any subjective factors which may have influenced the conduct of the offender;
- (d) the design and manner of execution of the offence; and
- (e) the possibility of reform and social re-adaptation of the offender; and
- (f) any other factors which the Court may deem necessary.

(6) At the hearing for sentencing, the family of the victim may be given an opportunity to address the Court on any matter connected with the offence.

(7) For purposes of sub-section (7), the Court may in each case, make a determination as to who constitutes the “family of the victim”, taking into account the circumstances of the case.

(8) Notwithstanding sub-section (4) and subject to sub-section (10) a sentence of death shall not be pronounced on or recorded against a person convicted of capital murder if it appears to the Court that at the time the offence was committed he was under the age of eighteen years.

(9) The Court shall sentence a person referred to in sub-section (8) to a period of imprisonment for a term deemed appropriate by the Court.

(10) On an indictment charging a person with capital murder, he may be found not guilty of capital murder but guilty of non-capital murder if the circumstances of the case justify such conviction.

(11) Capital murder shall be treated as a distinct offence from non-capital murder for the purpose of any appeal against conviction; otherwise capital murder shall not be treated as a distinct offence from non-capital murder for any other purpose.

(12) Where on an appeal against conviction of capital murder the Court substitutes a verdict of guilty of non-capital murder for the verdict of guilty of capital murder, the Court shall nevertheless determine whether the sentence of death is warranted under sub-section (4) and shall confirm the sentence if it is found to be so warranted.

(13) For the purposes of this section “judicial officer” has the same meaning assigned to it under section 176.

Non-capital murder

230B.(1) A murder committed in circumstances other than any of those circumstances referred to in section 230A, is non-capital murder.

(2) Subject to sub-section (3), a person convicted on indictment of non-capital murder is liable to imprisonment for life.

(3) A person who is convicted of a non-capital murder may be sentenced to death if—

- (a) he has previously been convicted of another murder committed on a different occasion;
- (b) he has been convicted of another murder committed on the same occasion as the one with which he is charged.

(4) A person referred to in sub-section (3) shall not by virtue of that sub-section be sentenced to death by reason of a previous conviction for murder unless—

- (a) at least seven days before the trial notice is given to him that it is intended to prove the previous conviction; and
- (b) before he is sentenced his previous conviction for murder is admitted by him or is found to be proven by the trial Judge.”

40. Section 231 of the principal Code is repealed and the following section is substituted—

Amendment of section 231 of principal Code.
